Mr. Aden

My dear Philip,

It was an awful shame that you got ill just on the day of our first board meeting. I hope you are better now. Thank God Philip it is all over and signed and finished. You know there is going to be an Common number of the Herald in December. Could you not write Philip, I would like to say what I've always felt. There are very few of us who would have been big enough to have done what you've done. You've shown us all what faith should be like. More and more I feel that Omman will be 'an enduring shrine where His presence will eternally abide'."

something, a few lines would do; send it to the Herald, 6 Jarristock Sqre.

We've had a smooth and a very hot journey there are ten of us on board and every one else thinks we are very queer, keeping to ourselves Indians and Europeans; good friends and no racial feeling. We are all longing a little for the cool woods of Omman, and I expect you would like a little of this sun and heat.
