

July 16th. 1926.

My dear Phillip,

Just a note to wish you a very hearty welcome back to your old Castle at Ommen. You must have heard already about the several activities that are being carried on here as preparation for the great Camp Congress.

We have had a wonderful time, the weather has been lovely for the first time, I believe, this summer. All the people now present here are very happy and full of enthusiasm.

We have several good schemes, nothing new of course, for Eerde and its immediate future. We are going to do our very best to realise some of the old dreams which you and some of the others have had for a long time.

Do come back soon, as the party is dispersing on the 19th. and it would be so nice to have you for at least one day before the party goes into Camp.

Kindly remember me to your mother. I have not asked you questions about your trip round the world, for I shall hear all about it when we meet!

Castle Eerde,

Ommen, (0)

Holland.

With love,

Yours affectionately,

Rajagopal.

P.S. Krishnaji also wants to welcome you heartily.
He is very busy, but has been saying every day,
how nice it will be when Phillip returns.
So, till we meet.
