My dear Baron Pallandt,

I am very sorry not to have acknowledged your letter earlier and to thank you for the 100 guilders. I think I am coming via Brussels but will let you know by telegraph. I have ordered my ticket and I do not yet know what the journey is going to cost & by what route they will be able to give me the ticket. I shall leave here on the 14th in any case.

I hope I am not giving you too much trouble.

Yours very sincerely
J. Vishvaकर्ति
